4. Follow the instructions for creating your Oracle account.
 - Registering for your Oracle account does not register you for Oracle Academy membership. You must have an Oracle account in order to submit an Oracle Academy membership application.
 - Your Oracle account will become your Oracle Academy member account. It will also give you access to other Oracle resources, such as the Oracle Technology Network.

The screenshot shows the Oracle 'Create Your Oracle Account' registration page. At the top is the Oracle logo. Below it is the heading 'Create Your Oracle Account'. A paragraph explains that the account provides access to online services and allows for optional subscriptions. A link for existing users is provided. A red asterisk indicates required information. The form includes fields for E-mail Address (with a note that it is the username), Password (with a note on password requirements), and Retype Password. There is a Country dropdown menu set to USA. The Name field is split into 'First or Given Name' and 'Last Name'. Other fields include Job Title, Work Phone (with a '+1' prefix), Company Name, Address (split into three lines), City, State/Province (dropdown), and ZIP/Postal Code. At the bottom, there is a checkbox for 'Yes, send me e-mails on Oracle Products, Services and Events.' and a note: 'You may opt out of all marketing communications: Do Not E-mail'.

5. Check your email and click the verification link.

The screenshot shows an email interface with a red header bar containing the "ORACLE" logo. The main content area has the heading "Check your email" followed by a horizontal line. Below this, the text reads: "Verify your email address to use your account." and "We sent an email to academytester03@gmail.com with a button to verify your email address." A final paragraph states: "Did you receive the email? If not, check your spam folder or request a new verification email for up to 3 days. If you do not verify your email address within 3 days, you will need to create a new account. If you are having trouble, see Account Help." At the bottom left, it says "Integrated Cloud Applications & Platform Services" and "Account Help | Unsubscribe | Legal Notices | Terms of Use | Privacy | Cookie Preferences". At the bottom right, there are social media icons for Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Google+, YouTube, and RSS.

7. Once you are signed into your Oracle account, you will be directed to the Oracle Academy Membership Registration and Ordering page to begin the registration process.

The screenshot shows the Oracle Academy website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with "Oracle Academy Website" and "Contact Us" links, and a language selector set to "English". The main header features the Oracle Academy logo and a user profile "Hi, Academy Tester18". Below the header is a large red banner with the text "Oracle Academy Membership Registration and Ordering" and a note about recommended browsers (Firefox and Chrome). The main content area is divided into two columns: "Institutional Membership" and "Individual Membership". Each column includes an icon (a school building for institutional and a person with a code symbol for individual), a description of benefits, and a "Register" button. The footer contains a link to "Learn more about Oracle Academy" and social media icons.
